

A Comparative Study of Tourism Cultures and Destinations in Yucatán, México

6 weeks, June 27 to August 2006

osea–The Open School of Ethnography and Anthropology

"As my lesson continued, I realized that René was sharing a part of himself with me; he was revealing a layer of his identity that he wanted me to know was important to him..."

osea Summer Field School

2006

MIRA: Multimedia Interdisciplinary Research in Anthropology

México

Locations include:

Colonial City of Mérida

Playa del Carmen, Jewel of Maya Riviera

Ancient Ruins of Chichén Itzá

Modern Maya Village of Pisté

*"I felt it was a great experience. I fully enjoyed doing my own research project, conducting my own inter-views, and gathering all information first-hand.
It made my whole project feel like it was my own."*

Program Costs include:

- Tuition, program activities, local transportation, shared room lodging, breakfast and lunches during week & weekends

4-Day Program break allows participants free-time to explore other culture destinations on the Maya Riviera and in the Yucatán Peninsula

Application Deadline

April 10, 2006

Limit 15

www.osea-cite.org

Open to Undergraduates in sophomore year and higher and to Graduate Students in any social science and humanities fields.

Design, Conduct & Complete
Independent & Interdisciplinary Fieldwork

Areas and Fields of Research include:
Cultural Ecology, Globalization, Applied Anthropology, Identity Politics, Heritage
Consumerism, Visual Culture,
Performance, Tourism, Development,
Urban Culture, Latin American Studies,
Cultural Studies

9 Credits in Anthropology, 3 courses:

- Visual Ethnography , Cultural Anthropology, and Research Methods
- Conversational Spanish Required

