OSEA HISTORY Since 1985, Dr. Quetzil E. Castañeda, OSEA’s Founding Director, has conducted ethnographic research in Yucatán. Castañeda also works across disciplinary boundaries to develop alternative research practices. His recent publications include essays in Critique of Anthropology on the history of anthropology, American Ethnologist on modern Maya art, and Chichen Itzá, Journal of Latin American Anthropology on Maya ethnicity and identity in Yucatán, and Ethnography on Yucatec Maya social movements. He is currently writing on the theory and practice of ethnography and fieldwork.

CONTACT Dr. Quetzil E. Castañeda can be reached at quetzil@osea-cite.org.

OSEA programs in méxico an innovative school without walls for the research and study of ethnography + anthropology

the open school of ethnography and anthropology mérida, yucatán, méxico

OSEA SPONSORS IF: Interview Forum (online journal on ethnographic research) www.theinterviewforum.com; The Public Meanings of Archaeology – An Interdisciplinary Workshop with Archaeologists and Ethnographers, Wenner Gren co-sponsor, Chichén Itzá, México, June 1-5, 2005 training in the ethnography of the future study abroad programs in anthropology on-site learning and independent research

ethnography writers’ workshop
3/4 WEEK PROGRAM in June and July Mérida, Yucatán, México

Participants devote full time to their writing projects: 3 group workshops to discuss & comment on each participant’s writing and research. OSEA staff gives individualized attention to your writing project to improve your text. Off-Time to enjoy Mérida and optional excursions throughout Yucatán. Workshop ideal for scholars working on book projects, dissertations, journal articles, and research proposals.

summer field school
in ethnography | mira multi-media interdisciplinary research in anthropology is a collaborative and comparative study of tourism destinations and cultures.

5/6 WEEK PROGRAM in July and August Conducted in the tourist destinations of Mérida, Chichen Itzá, and the Maya Riviera/Playa del Carman, México

Students learn, design, and conduct interdisciplinary (anthropology/art & design/tourism/cultural studies) research on topics including Tourism, Migration, Development, Heritage, Globalization, Consumption, and Identity. In addition to subject matter, students learn cultural anthropology, visual ethnography, and digital fieldwork presentation. 6-9 credits in Visual Anthropology, Art + Design winter + spring study abroad in anthropology, ethnography, and fieldwork methods

11 WEEK PROGRAM from January through March Based in the Yucatec Maya community of Pisté/Chichén Itzá, México

Seminars on Maya Anthropology, Ethnography, and Fieldwork Methods; Students Design and Conduct Independent Research with Close Supervision by OSEA staff; Conversational Spanish and Yucatec Maya for Ethnographic Field Work; Educational Field Trips to Cultural Communities, Archaeological Heritage, and Tourism Sites.

16 credits in Anthropology + Ethnography; Concurrent Enrollment available with some universities.

www.osea-cite.org
visit our website for program information, dates, and application materials.